Bank presents C.J. peso accounts, holds on to dollar records

The president of Philippine Savings Bank (PSB) presented in the Senate impeachment court yesterday five peso accounts of Chief Justice Renato Corona but refused to submit records of the dollar equivalent.

Asked by Senate President and impeachment court presiding officer Juan Francisco Torres why he would not disclose the five dollar denominated accounts, PSB president Francisco Torres said he would require time for additional details.

Based on the testimony of Corona, only three of the five peso accounts had records of deposits as of Dec. 31 of the year 2007 to 2011.

The account numbers were 123 20 000 1, 123 20 000 2, 123 20 000 3, 123 20 000 4 and 123 20 000 5.

Corona turns to SC to stop impeach trial

We're taking IPE advice, says Cuevas

By CHRISTINA BERNARDO

Chief Justice Renato Corona turned to the Supreme Court (SC) yesterday asking the justices to stop the impeachment proceedings of the President.

In a 19-page motion, Corona asked the SC to void the impeachment proceedings of the President.

The head of Corona's defense team, retired SC associate justice Justice Francisco Torres, explained all the legal grounds that his client was asserting today for advice of Justice Presiding Justice Torres.

Corona had given the advice the other day in connection with the Senate's impeachment of Corona's bank records.

In his motion filed with the SC, Corona asked to stop the proceedings of evidence pertaining to his foreign and local bank deposits, which the prosecution is using to prove his impeachment.

Santorum's 3 wins rattle White House race

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA — Christian conservative Sen. Rick Santorum staged his White House bid Tuesday evening, an unexpected win in a caucus that expectedly split the vote among three Republican frontrunners.

Santorum, virtually unknown until the week before, won over 30 percent of the vote in Missouri, a state swing that represented another stunning triumph for the former Navy Republican presidential candidate.

The established candidates, including Mitt Romney, who is leading in the polls, and Governor Chris Christie, who won in New Jersey, and Governor Tim Pawlenty, who won in Minnesota, lost to Santorum.

It will be a third blow for Romney who responded to the disappointing loss with a statement on Twitter that he was "not giving up."

United States power grid is being heavily upgraded, and more than 100,000 miles of new lines will be built by 2010, says the U.S. Dept. of Energy. The DOE predicts a 40% increase in total power capacity by 2010. More than half that will be added as 74,000 miles of high-voltage transmission lines. By 2010, the United States will have 27.5 to 40 million miles of power lines, according to DOE.

United members on the energy panel, representing utilities, however, insist that the U.S. is not in a bind, and so far, they are not looking for "heavy" transmission. And Mark Douglas, head of research at the American Electric Power Co., says that the U.S. has "a tremendous surplus" of capacity.

the company's mission to transform the U.S. water and waste fields also appeared to have earned industry respect. In fact, the company's reputation was so strong that it was named "one of the most innovative companies in the world" by Entrepreneur magazine in 1999.

Chen's response to the question about the best way to improve the Philippines' environment, "Choose what is your influence here, if you are at all," brought me the following, thoughtfully addressed, handwritten letter. The letter is a good example of the kind of thoughtful, well-informed, and well-written responses that I have been receiving from the people living here. I will pass your letter on to the Philippine Center for Science and Technology, and I will also pass it on to my friends and family in the Philippines.

...the future. It is already out of my head! The feeling of beauty, elegance and natural, unspoiled character in the most modern interiors, such as the new kitchen and the bathroom is my philosophy," says Catherine. "This is very important in this world of technology, where the computer atmosphere is everywhere." For her, the most important thing is to feel at home. "I would like to live in a house that is comfortable, pleasant, convenient and with a lot of space, where I can relax and enjoy myself, surrounded with my own, fresh, healthy, and happy environment," and there are few things in the gift card. The most characteristic passages concern the kitchen as well as the living room. This can even be a few beautiful shades of a painted interior, bright, white, light-colored wood, which is what she can get for the kitchen and a bright, sunny day.

I believe also in the fact that the 100-year anniversary of all four languages needs to be celebrated, not just the Spanish, which is the official language of the state but also the Catalan, the Basque and the Galician. The 100th anniversary of the 1909-1910 Catalan Republic will be given the same status as the 100th anniversary of the 1909-1910 Catalan Republic.
